

Name: _____

Date: _____

Per: _____

“The World on the Turtle’s back” p25

In a page reflection, explain the following based on your reading of “The World on the Turtle’s back”:

- a) The most surprising or unexpected idea(s)
- b) How you reacted emotionally to the reading
- c) How the material connects or conflicts with your prior knowledge, beliefs, and values
- d) How the material connects to knowledge from other courses

Name: _____

Date: _____

Per: _____

“The World on the Turtle’s back” p25

In a page reflection, explain the following based on your reading of “The World on the Turtle’s back”:

- a) The most surprising or unexpected idea(s)
- b) How you reacted emotionally to the reading
- c) How the material connects or conflicts with your prior knowledge, beliefs, and values
- d) How the material connects to knowledge from other courses

Name: _____

Date: _____

Per: _____

“The World on the Turtle’s back” p25

In a page reflection, explain the following based on your reading of “The World on the Turtle’s back”:

- a) The most surprising or unexpected idea(s)
- b) How you reacted emotionally to the reading
- c) How the material connects or conflicts with your prior knowledge, beliefs, and values
- d) How the material connects to knowledge from other courses

Name: _____

Date: _____

Per: _____

“The World on the Turtle’s back” p25

In a page reflection, explain the following based on your reading of “The World on the Turtle’s back”:

- a) The most surprising or unexpected idea(s)
- b) How you reacted emotionally to the reading
- c) How the material connects or conflicts with your prior knowledge, beliefs, and values
- d) How the material connects to knowledge from other courses

Name: _____

Date: _____

Per: _____

“The World on the Turtle’s back” p25

In a page reflection, explain the following based on your reading of “The World on the Turtle’s back”:

- a) The most surprising or unexpected idea(s)
- b) How you reacted emotionally to the reading
- c) How the material connects or conflicts with your prior knowledge, beliefs, and values
- d) How the material connects to knowledge from other courses